This April 2011 column Semantic Web Research Resources is a comprehensive list of resources and sites that give you the latest and most important information concerning semantic web research available over the Internet including related and associated resources and sites. The below list is taken from a section of the Subject Tracer™ Information Blog that I created for the Virtual Private Library and is constantly updated at the following URL:

<http://www.DeepWebResearch.info/>

These resources will keep you current and up to date with the latest resources, sites and happenings concerning artificial intelligence resources on the Internet. With IBM's Watson displaying its extremely competent artificial intelligence capabilities during the Jeopardy Challenge in February 2011, the world is preparing for some very detailed knowledge revolutions in a number of fields including healthcare!
