Executive Director – Virtual Private Library
zillman@virtualprivatelibrary.com

This December 2008 column ShoppingBots and Online Shopping 2009 is a comprehensive list of shopping bots, shopping search engines and comparison shopping search engines as well as online shopping resources, sources and sites available over the Internet and the World Wide Web. This is the 15th Annual ShoppingBot Official Listing by Marcus P. Zillman, M.S., A.M.H.A. The below list is taken from the latest Subject Tracer™ Information Blog titled ShoppingBots and is constantly updated with Subject Tracer™ bots at the following URL:

<http://www.ShoppingBots.info/>

These resources and sources will help you to discover the many pathways available to you through the Internet for obtaining and locating statistics sources in today's hungry for data and statistics society both locally and globally. This is a MUST information keeper for those seeking the latest and greatest statistics resources!

Notes and Suggestion for Virtual Shopping

As you use the above referenced resources you MUST be very vigilant and keep in mind the following risk management tools to help you obtain a successful shopping experience:

- 1) Send an eMail to the shopping site prior to purchase requesting a copy of their “Customer Satisfaction Policy”. Allow up to 24 hours for response and if company response is slow or cannot be cautious. If company takes longer than 24 hours to respond purchase elsewhere!
- 2) Look for contact information on the home page. Company MUST have the following listed: phone number, complete address including zip code and an eMail address to resolve any product or service issues.
- 3) Pay by credit card thus allowing you the problem solving resources of the credit card company should any problems arise. Some will halt the payment until your questions are answered.
- 4) Save and print all your online receipts. Also save all receipts and packaging physically received in case you need to return the purchase. Save all correspondence that is generated for the purchase as well.
- 5) Return the merchandise promptly and within return policy period if problems have not been resolved. State that “communications were unsatisfactory” for the reason you are returning the merchandise.

By using the above risk management tools and allowing time to either browse through the many virtual malls or using one of the many ShoppingBots you will have a very successful and rewarding Internet shopping experience. I would also make it a requirement that your Internet browser software have the 128-bit Encryption security protocol. the very safest available! Now go shop with your Bot until You Drop!!
